

FAMILY CAREER TREE

Believe it or not, the career choice of our family members can influence our own career choices. On this tree, imagine each family member and his or her career as a branch. Include brothers and sisters and the careers they are interested in. Label the tree with your family members' occupations. For example, if your grandmother was a truck driver, put "truck driver" by the word grandma.

